

Linux & Git Commands Quick Notes

Linux Commands

Command	1-Line Explanation	Example
ls	Lists files and folders in the current directory.	ls cd	Changes the current working directory.	cd project
pwd	Displays the current directory path.	pwd
nano	Opens a file in nano text editor.	nano file.txt
touch	Creates a new empty file.	touch test.txt

Git Commands

Command	1-Line Explanation	Example
git clone <repo_url>	Copies a repository from GitHub/GitLab.	git clone https://github.com/user/repo git add .	Adds all changed files to staging area.	git add .
git commit -m "message"	Saves changes locally with a message.	git commit -m "Added feature"
git push	Uploads committed changes to remote repository.	git push

Basic Git Workflow:

1. Clone repository using git clone
2. Move into folder using cd
3. Create/update files
4. Add changes using git add .
5. Commit changes using git commit -m "message"
6. Push code using git push